Gateway to the Future

The years spent at Huntertown will be remembered by the students as the entrance into the Gateway to The Future. As we the seniors close the gate behind us, we will long remember the work and the play which we have enjoyed. Our successes and our failures have helped to develop our personalities and have been the foundation on which we have built our character. All this has been the key which will open the door to our success as we journey on life's pathway. We must leave this all behind as memories, and we should now center our thoughts upon the future.

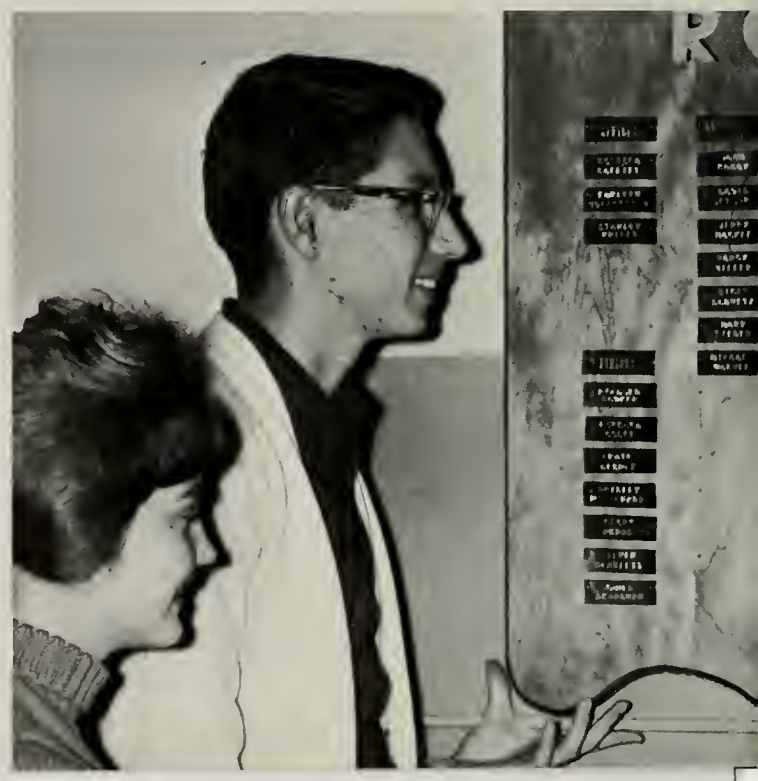
Crowded into one day in a student's life are many activities, and classes try to rank among the most important. Whether the exercise is for the lungs or the legs, whether it tests the dexterity of the mind or the fingers, it contributes to progress in school.

Various Tools of Trades are shown on this page. The boys find out how to use power saws in the shop, research books from the library, and weights and levers in physics lab.

This thought, Let us give thanks for all God has given us, was presented to us during our Thanksgiving convocation.

These scenes represent some of the happenings around our school. Two of our National Honor Society members and their sponsor are admiring the Honor Roll plaque which the society purchased for our school.



Ah! Ha! This is similar to Fibber McGee's closet.

No, this isn't Churubusco High School.

FADS

This page is dedicated to the teenagers of 1961. These fads and customs will certainly serve as a remembrance token out of teenage life. First comes their love for music. It is more than a passing fad; it is part of their lives. Pointed-toe and tennis shoes, bulky sweaters, Bandstand skirts, trench coats and continental slacks are among the favorites in wardrobes. Favorite foods consist of pizza, Big Boy's, french fires and Pepsi. And, of course, the custom of ring exchanging is still popular year after year while other fads come and go.

FACULTY

Mr. Paul Gerard, supervising principal, and Mr. Eugene Wort, assistant principal, are pictured above. They are responsible for enforcing school regulations and handling problems. Their close connection with all special activities here at school is an important one as each year brings an improvement in student responsibility and maturity.

Presented on this page are some of the people behind the scenes of the school who see that all the details of policy and organization are carried out. The group above is the school board whose members are left to right: James McComb, president; Fred Dickes, corresponding secretary; Glen Buckmaster, vice president; Walter Gump, treasurer; and Glenn Shank, secretary. Mr. F. Kenneth Feuerbach, County Superintendent of Schools, is also pictured above during one of his visits to Huntertown.

Below are the school secretaries who always seem to have hundreds of extra moments during the day to help all callers in the office. On the right is Mrs. Betty Grim; left is Mrs. Lela Rinehold.

SPORTS

The Huntertown Wildcats made an impressive record in all sports this year. Their teamwork in basketball, baseball and cross country gained recognition; while the more individual sports, golf and track brought honor back to Huntertown. The valuable experience and good sportsmanship each player has learned will be a great asset to his life.

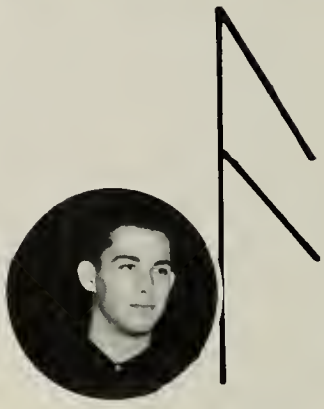
Activities

Our school spirit is based on many activities which help to build and strengthen the character of individuals. Through these activities, students develop their talents, and ideals, so that they may be better citizens of tomorrow.

The band has received many honors this year. Among these are third place at Auburn's Parade Contest and second at North Side's District Contest. They also performed at the Indiana State Fair. Basketball games, contests, concerts, and parades kept them busy. The twirlers also performed with the band on these occasions. The entire school is proud of the fine Huntertown Band.

Bill Sauder, President



John Branam, Vice President

The new addition belonging to the band this year is their Band Sweetheart, Jean McBride.

What would we do without the band at the pep sessions?

The tall, striking drum major, in his new uniform is John Bockman. Heading the band, John led them to many awards this past year.

The twirlers did a Santa Claus pom-pom routine for the basketball game near Christmas.

CHEERLEADERS: This year the student body elected seven varsity cheerleaders. They all have performed marvelously in backing the Wildcat team at every game. The senior members are Rebecca Russell, Roberta Russell, Dick Spice and Lyle Dickes. The only junior is John Yates. Anita DeVeny and Gail Thompson are both sophomores.

The reserve squad consists of all sophomores. They are Emily Davito, Susie Benward and Dale Nelson. These three cheerleaders led their team to many victories during the basketball season.

The freshman class elected cheerleaders, too. They are Barbara Arnold, and Vicki Leis. This kind of experience will make better cheerleaders in future years.

We are well along in the school year and are nearing our "big" vacation. It has been fun so far and I'm sure the remainder of the school year will be the same. I've enjoyed getting to know you and find you are a fine group of young people to work with. I'm happy for and appreciate this opportunity to wish each one of you a very MERRY CHRISTMAS and a HAPPY AND SUCCESSFUL NEW YEAR.

Mr. Wort

Our Friend:

Thank you very much for the clothing gift which you have sent to our Ware house at Ault Road and Rutledge Pike, Knoxville, Tennessee.

We want you to know that this gift will be used to bring new hope to the lives of children in those areas of the world where there is great need for your assistance and sympathy.

Sincerely,

W. H. Hillhouse

THE CITADEL: editorial staff members seem rather worn after putting out the yearbook. On the left Gail Hawkins, senior section head, rests against the window sill. Bill Sauder, chief pohtographer, collapses over the step ladder, and his assistants, Dewey Frederick and Dick Cartwright, join him around the ladder. Mrs. Gorsuch, the advisor, seems to be tearing her hair out while in front of her Blix Ann Siepert, Kay Cook, art editor, and Mary Ann Archer, sports section head, get their heads together in a weary pose. Near the clock Kay Lorenz and Charlotte McDuffee look through old yearbooks. Linda McComb, head of the activities section, and Barbara Russell find support from the chalk ledge. In the front row Nancy Miller pounds out the last few lines of copy as Janet Bower, underclass section head, holds Judy Smith's head under the blade of the paper cutter. The editors in chief, Rebecca and Roberta Russell, sit next to the overloaded wastebasket, tired but happy, as they realize their job is finished.

The business staff of thc yearbook is shown looking over a few pages of advertising. They are standing left to right: Ray Lincoln, Gayle Fleming, Colleen Chapman, Diana Gray, Linda Hatch, Sandy Grossman, Sue Leis, Sharon Richards, Terry Rosenberry, advertising manager, Larry Tonkel, sales manager, and Stan Krider. Seated are: Sara Gloyd, Dottie Englehart, and Connie Gordon.

STUDENT COUNCIL: The Student Council consists of twelve members, who are all representatives of their particular classes. This council helps to create a better understanding between the student body and the faculty. This year they sponsored a dance and also several convocations. Representatives from Huntertown were sent to Horace Mann in Gary for the State Student Council Convention.

The Russell Twins and Faye Buckmaster are doing a choral reading for the Christmas convocation.

The very able librarian, Miss Enley, has done a fine job taking care of the library this year.

The library grew this year, so Mr. Byers helped with the many tasks.

It was not uncommon to see one of the following librarians helping the students in the library. From left to right they are: Donald Lindley, Charles Disbrow, Richard Cook, Ruth DeHabey, Florence Alday, Grace Gordon, Pam Ziegler, Diane Hess and Hazel Ott.

The spring activities are many, and this year the following pages are added to the 1961 Citadel to give subscribers complete coverage of the school year.

It's a happy day when the yearbooks are distributed. Everyone is anxious to sign their friends books in hopes that he will be remembered in future years.

Judy McDougall, Ellen Ringler, Diane Welker, Linda and Patty Wilkinson helped in the annual sale of Y-Teen Potato Chips. Sharon Frankert is modeling her outfit in the Dressmakers' Holiday, the style show presented by the Home Economics Department. Larry Tonkel is anxiously being tagged for the National Honor Society by Max Buckles, President.

Below are the members and sponsors of the National Honor Society. FIRST ROW: Barbara Cohee, Roberta Russell, Rebecca Russell, Gail Hawkins, Connie Gordon, Sharon Richards, Earleen Hollopeter, Faye Buckmaster. SECOND ROW: Jim Shookman, Richard Bowker, Duane Dove, Mike McDougall, Bill Sauder, John Branam, Larry Tonkel, Terry Rosenberry. THIRD ROW: Mr. Helm, Sponsor, John Malcolm, Dale Fryback, Craig German, Max Buckles, Mr. Gerard, Principal.

The new track at the school this year gave the boys spirit to set an impressive record. Broad jumping brought many blue ribbons home to Dale Richmond. Bill Phillips finished far ahead of his opponent. This and many other victories helped Bill to win the Most Valuable Track Award. Dan Sloffer is hoping he can get across without the bar falling down. The enthusiastic crowd also helped, by backing the team to victories.

CONVOCATIONS

The County Band presented a stirring program for the high school.

An Easter Convocation was given by the Student Council and drama class.

The presentation of the flag was the opening of the Recognition Day program.

Bill Sauder, John Phillips Sousa Award.

Lucy Zeller, Betty Crocker Award.

Terry Rosenberry, Larry Tonkel, Huntertown Businessmen's Scholarship.

Earleen Holopeter, P.T.A.

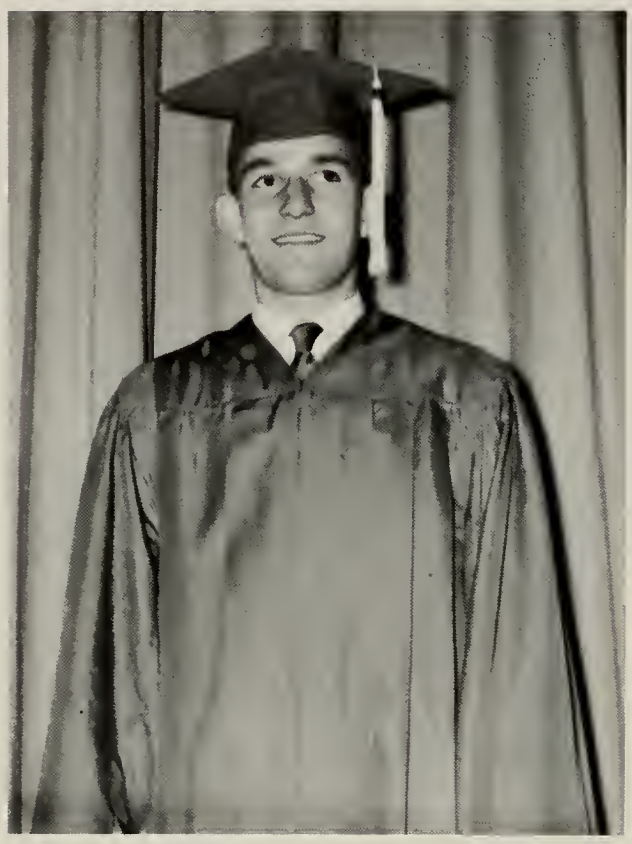
Many hours are spent in school work and extra-curricular activities throughout the year. On May 12, these people, who have worked so vigorously since school began, are recognized for their efforts. The seniors in their Caps and Gowns were also honored on Recognition Day.

Mike McDougal, Drama Award.

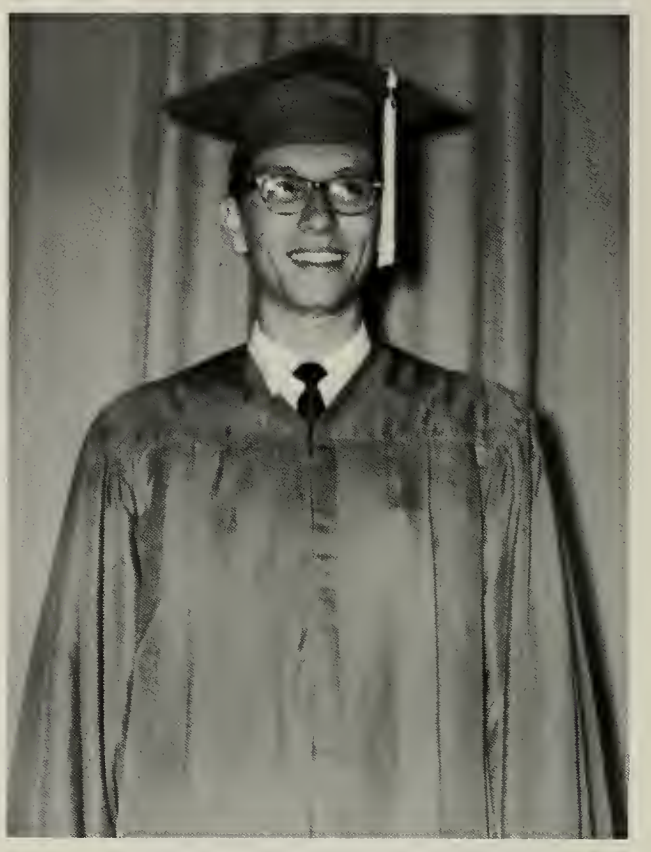
Bill Phillips, Track Award.

Earleen Holopeter, D.A.R.

VALEDICTORIAN



SALUTATORIAN



Terry Rosenberry and Max Buckles Maintain Highest Averages

Valedictorian, Terry Rosenberry worked very hard to obtain, through his four years in high school, the average that ranks him highest in the class of 1961. Not only was Terry top scholar in his class, but he also participated in many extra activities in and out of school. The Valedictorian plans to attend Oberlin College next fall.

Salutatorian, Max Buckles worked equally hard to obtain his high honor. He, too, participated in many extra activities. Max is planning to attend college next fall.

The class of '61 was fortunate to have Dr. Preston Bradley as their speaker at Commencement. He is Pastor of the Peoples Church of Chicago. His address was titled, "What is Education."

This years Baccalaureate speaker was Dr. John F. Mesiter from the First Presbyterian Church in Fort Wayne. The title of his address was "Be a Thermostat."

The stage was decorated with green palms, white gladiolas and blue carnations, the class flower and color.

Graduation is a happy, but sad event for everyone participating. The seniors are happy that they have passed through twelve years of school successfully. But, they are unhappy to leave their school and their friends. However, everyone must pass the "Gateway to the Future."

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held at Halls Gas House.

King and Queen of the Prom were Duane Dove and Connie Gordon.

John Yates and Shirley Marschand are shown changing the gym into a ball room.

Dianna Aukerman and Paul Fox were decoration chairman and invitation chairman, respectively, of the prom. Barb Cohee and Jim Shookman were co-chairmen of the Junior-Senior Banquet. Shirley Marschand, prom decoration chairman and Dan Holmes, Prom general chairman are not shown.
